DIED.

At his residence four miles west of Jasper, on August 12th, 1858, after a severe attack of congestive fever, of some six days' continuance, Mr. MADISON ARMSTRONG, in the forty-second year of his age.

Brother Armstrong was born in Kentucky, and when quite young emigrated to Indiana with his Father, who was one of the first settlers of Dubois county. At the age of sixteen, Brother Armstrong made a profession of faith in Christ; some ten years later he joined the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, in which he lived a consistent life and died a victorious death. His afflictions were endured with Christian fortitude—and his expressions of resignation evidenced an unshaken confidence in the living Redeemer. As a Christian he was firm and consistent, though modest and unassuming; as a neighbor he was loved and lamented by all; as a citizen he was justly held in high regard by all who knew him. But notwithstanding these noble traits of character, death entered and there is no defense.

Mr Field telegraphs to the directors of the Atlantic Telegraph Company, that before he left London, it was decided, unanimously, that after the Queen's and President's messages are transmitted the line will be kept for several weeks for the use of the electricians to enable them to thoroughly test the various mode of telegraphing, that the directors might decide which was the best and most rapid method.

WHAT? WHY A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR.

Because it is the ornament God himself provided for all our race. Reader, although the rose may bloom ever so brightly in the glowing cheek, the eye ever so sparkling, the teeth be those of pearls, if the head is bereft of its covering, or the hair be snarled and shivered, harsh and dry, far worse still, if sprinkled with gray, nature will lose more than hair her charms. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, if used two or three times a week, will restore and permanently secure to all such an ornament. Read the following and judge. The writer of the first is the celebrated pianist, Thalberg:

NEW YORK, April 19, 1858.

Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express to you the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue I consider your Restorative a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. I am, dear sir, yours truly,
